Songs

I like apples.

I like apples.

I like dates.

Do you like apples?

Do you like dates?

Yes. I like apples
and I like dates.
Do you like bananas?
Do you like cakes?

No. I don't like bananas and I don't like cakes.
I like apples
and I like dates.

Where's Hassan?

Where, oh where, is he, is he?

Where, oh where, is he?

Is he here, is he there?

Is he really anywhere?

Tell me, where, oh where, is he?

Is he sitting in the park?

No, it's late. It's getting dark.

Tell me, where, oh where, is he?

Is he sitting by the sea?

Is he watching the TV?

Tell me, where, oh where, is he?

My house

I live in a house in London town.

My house has six rooms,
some up, some down.

Three bedrooms, a bathroom,
some stairs and a hall,
a living room, kitchen,
I think that's all.

Bill

Tom: What's your name?

Bill: Bill. B-i-l-l.

Tom: How old are you?

Bill: Thirteen.

Tom: Where are you from?

Bill: I'm from England.

Tom: How many brothers have you got?

Bill: One.

Tom: How many sisters have you got?

Bill: Two.

Tom: What do you do after school?

Bill: I watch TV and I go swimming every Tuesday.

Tom: Do you play football?

Bill: No, I don't.

Tim and Saleh

Who is talking?

A I live in a house behind the Post Office.

C I've got two brothers and one sister.

E I like listening to cassettes.

G My family goes to the park every Thursday.

B My house is next to the supermarket.

D I've got one brother and two sisters.

F My favourite pastime is playing football.

H We go to the beach every Thursday.

How does he come to school?

The teacher

Saleh

Fuad

Ahmed

Taha

He drives to school.

He runs to school.

He comes to school by bus.

He comes to school by bicycle.

He walks to school.

Who?

How	does	the teacher	come to school?
		Taha
	do	you

How did they come to school yesterday?

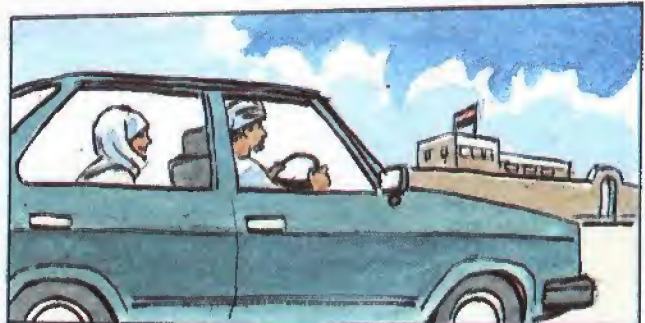

A Yesterday Najeeb came to school by bus.

B Aisha didn't come by bus. She walked.

C Hassan didn't walk. He ran.

D Fatma didn't run. She came by car.

E Ali didn't come by car. He came by bicycle.

F Jack didn't come to school. He went fishing.

Take care!

I walked up the street.
I stopped.
I looked left.
I looked right.
I looked left again.
I walked across the street.
I didn't run.

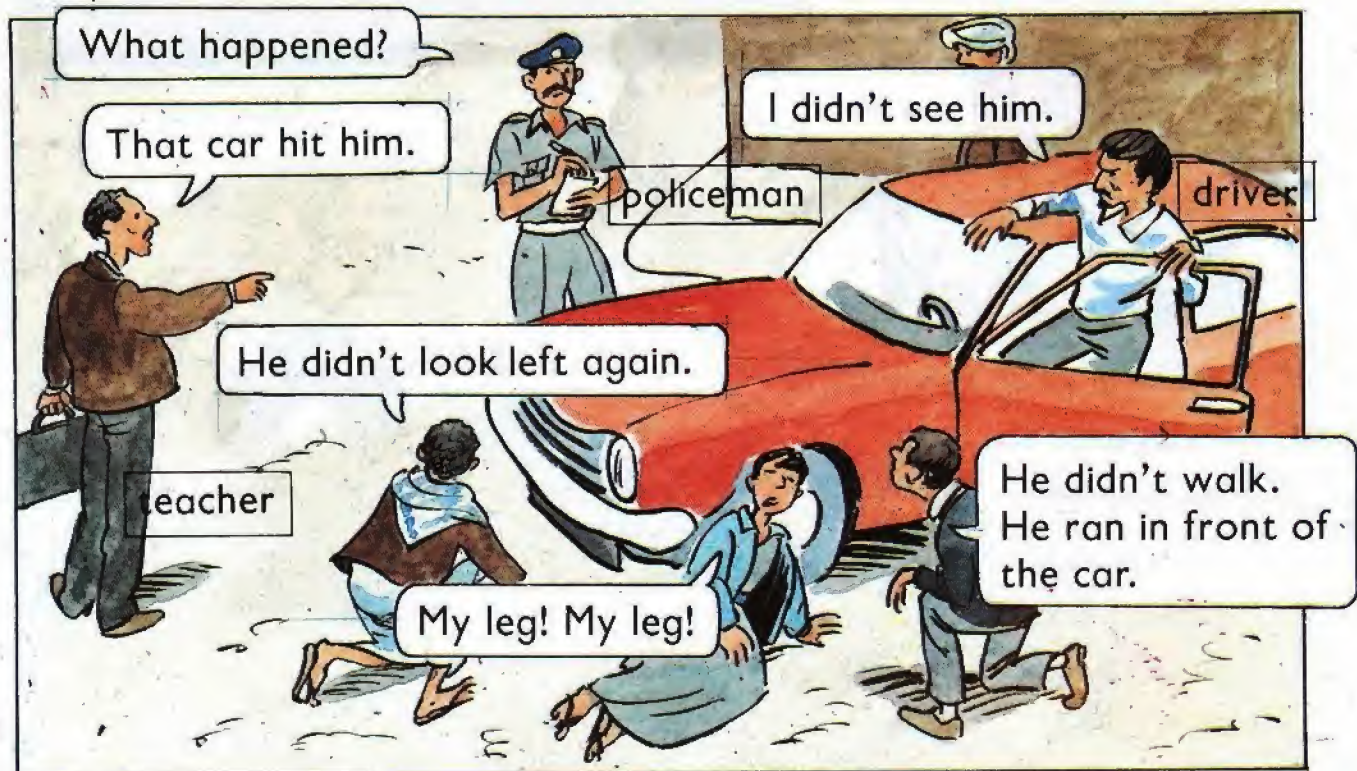

Did he do it?

An accident

Yesterday Hassan had an accident. What happened?

Accident

He walked up the street with his head in the air.
He didn't see the car.
He didn't take care.
He didn't look left.
He didn't look right.
He started to run.
Then he heard his friend cry:

Accident! Accident!
Don't have an accident!

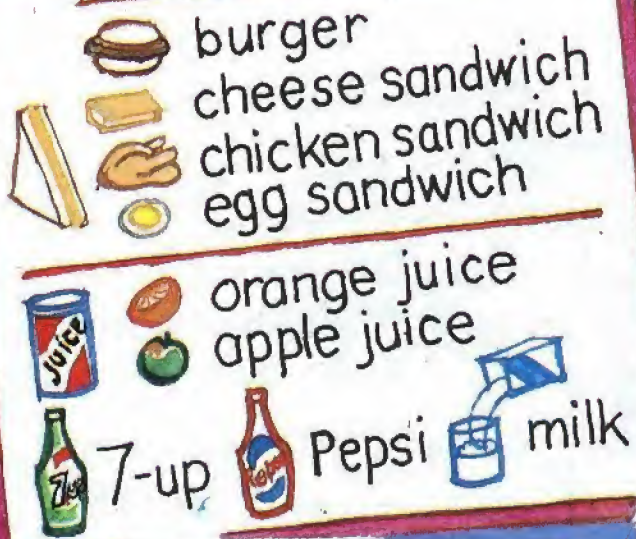

Stop, look and listen.
Stop, take care.
Stay where you are
when a car is there.
Walk, don't run,
when the road is clear.
Look where you're going.
You don't want to hear:

Accident! Accident!
Don't have an accident!

What would you like?

ALI'S TAKE-AWAY

What would you like?

I'd like a cheese sandwich, please.

And what would you like to drink?

I'd like a Pepsi, please.

One cheese sandwich and one Pepsi.

The girl from Kuwait

At Aisha's house

Aisha: This is Ameena. She's from Kuwait.
She's here on holiday.

Nadia: Hello, Ameena. My name's Nadia.

Fatma: And I'm Fatma. Ameena, would you like to come to my house some time?

Ameena: I'd love to, Fatma. When?

Fatma: Tomorrow.

Ameena: Fine. What time?

Fatma: Ten o'clock.

Ameena: Ten o'clock. OK.

Fatma: Great! We can listen to my cassettes.

Ameena: OK. Your house, tomorrow at ten o'clock. Oh, Fatma, where do you live?

Fatma: Next to the Post Office.

Ameena: Next to the Post Office. OK.

Presents

Ameena: What can I buy for my little brother?

Fatma: How about a football?

Ameena: He's got a football.

Fatma: How about a model boat?

Ameena: That's a good idea.

A letter from Sam

17, Green Street,
London.

2nd May

Dear Tim,

It was my birthday last Thursday and I had a party. There were lots of nice things to eat and drink. My mother made me a cake. It had thirteen candles on it.

I got lots of presents. My mother gave me a box of paints and my father gave me a chess set. My friends gave me a kite.

I wanted to fly my kite, so we all went to the park. The kite flew high up in the air, but then the string broke. My super kite flew away. Maybe I can make a new kite.

Bye,
Sam

How did they feel?

Ali: A little boy ran in front of our car last night.

Ahmed: Oh, no! Did you hit him?

Ali: No. My father stopped the car in time. But

Hassan: Where did you go yesterday?

Fuad: I went to the beach. I walked all the way there and all the way back.

Hassan: But it's a long way!

Fuad: Yes.

Nadia: Where's your watch?

Aisha: My little sister broke it last night.

Nadia: But it was new.

Aisha: I know.

Sam: My friends gave me a kite for my birthday.

Tom: Great! Can we fly it?

Sam: No. The string broke and it flew away.

Tom: Oh, no!

Sam: Yes.

The kite

It's my birthday today and I want to go and play in the park with a kite on some string.
But a kite I haven't got,
so I'll make it – well, why not?
When you're happy, you can do anything.

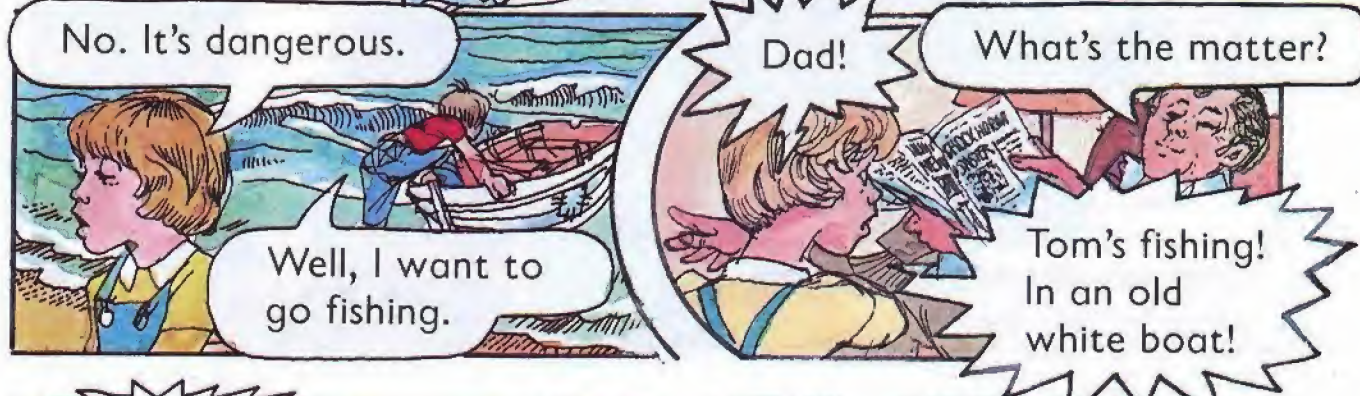

Did you do it?
Did you do it?
Did you cut it?
Did you glue it?
Did you tie it with a piece of string?
Did you try it?
Did you fly it?
Did you really try and fly it?
When you're happy, you can do anything.

Oh, I did. Yes, I did.
Yes, I did. I really did.
Yes, it flew and I began to sing.
It was high in the sky with the birds flying by.
When you're happy, you can do anything.

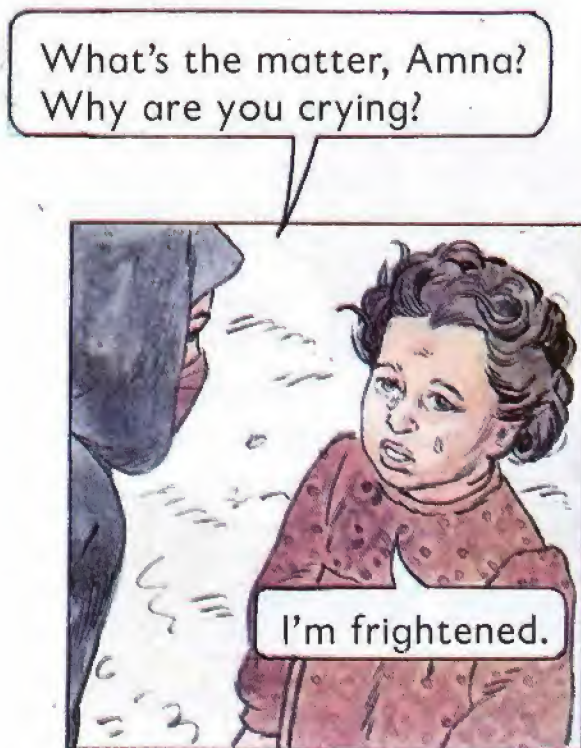

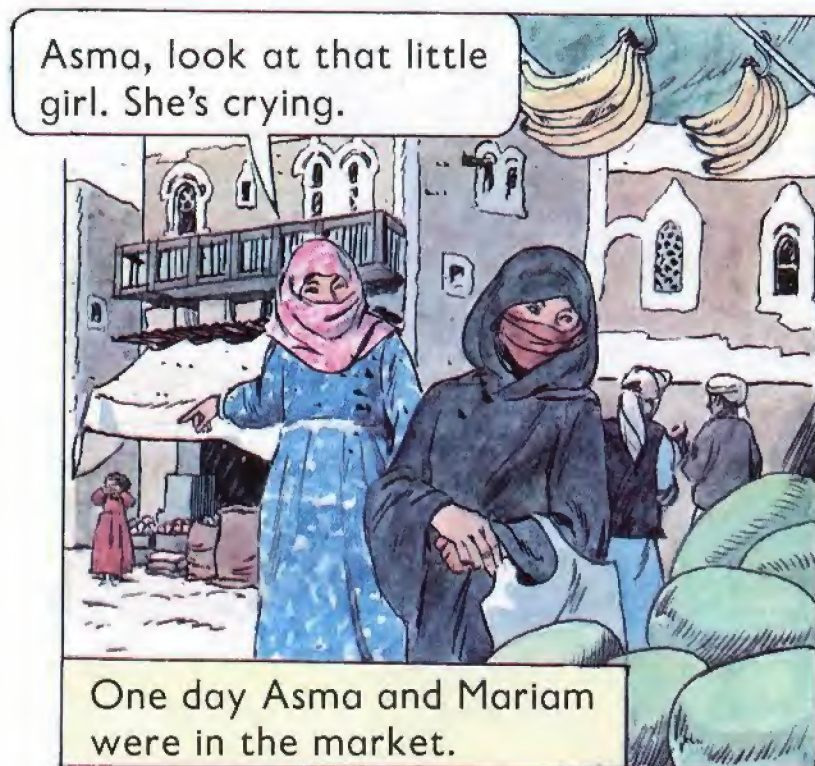

It's dangerous.

Asma and Mariam

I was with my mother.
Now I can't find her.

Don't worry. We'll look for your mother.

What's she wearing?

She's wearing a red and green dress.

Later ...

Look! She's over there.

Amna! Where were you?

We found her in the market.

Thank you.
Thank you very much.

What did they do last Tuesday?

Read Khalid's diary.

4 Tuesday

I phoned Taha in the morning and we went fishing in his father's boat. We fished all day. We didn't catch anything in the morning. In the afternoon we caught one small fish. When we came back in the evening, we were very tired and very hungry. We bought some fish in the market and had them for dinner.

Read Amal's diary.

4 Tuesday

Today I visited Nadia on her father's farm. We helped her mother in the kitchen. Then we went for a walk. We saw a big, black snake  next to a wall. I was very frightened, but Nadia wasn't. It was very hot in the afternoon, so we went back to the farm. We made some cakes and had them for lunch.

Will you help me?

Will you help me build a house,
a little house in a tree?
All our friends will play there,
just you wait and see.
We won't need a lot to build our house in a tree and it won't take long,
just you wait and see.

You get the nails, the wood and the hammer.
I'll talk to Dad and he'll give us his ladder.
We'll cut the wood and nail it in the branches of the tree.
Soon we'll have our house there,
just you wait and see.

Can you tell me the way?

Dave, John and Mrs Evans

John? Dave here.

Listen! I went to see Mrs Evans yesterday. She was very sad.

She's ill. She's going into hospital. She won't be back until next Friday. Let's do something for her.

I know! We'll clean her house for her.

I'll tell Peter and Mary. They'll help.

Great! They'll help too.

Fine. Bye!

What did John say?

- That's a good idea. — What? — Why? — Bye! — Hi, Dave!
— And I'll tell Jill and Penny. — OK. I'll see you tomorrow.

What were they doing?

Mrs Evans came home at 11 o'clock. Dave and his friends were in the house. Jill was cooking lunch and Mary was feeding the cat. Peter was painting the cupboard and Penny was taking a message. Dave was washing the window.

What was John doing?

Jim helps the police.

Jim: Bill! Look! I saw that accident.

Bill: Really?

Jim: Yes. I was shopping here on Saturday. I was coming out of the bakery. Suddenly a big car came round the corner. It hit an old man and drove away.

Bill: Was the old man OK?

Jim: No. An ambulance took him to hospital.

Bill: Who was driving the car?

Jim: I don't know.

Bill: Was it a man or a woman?

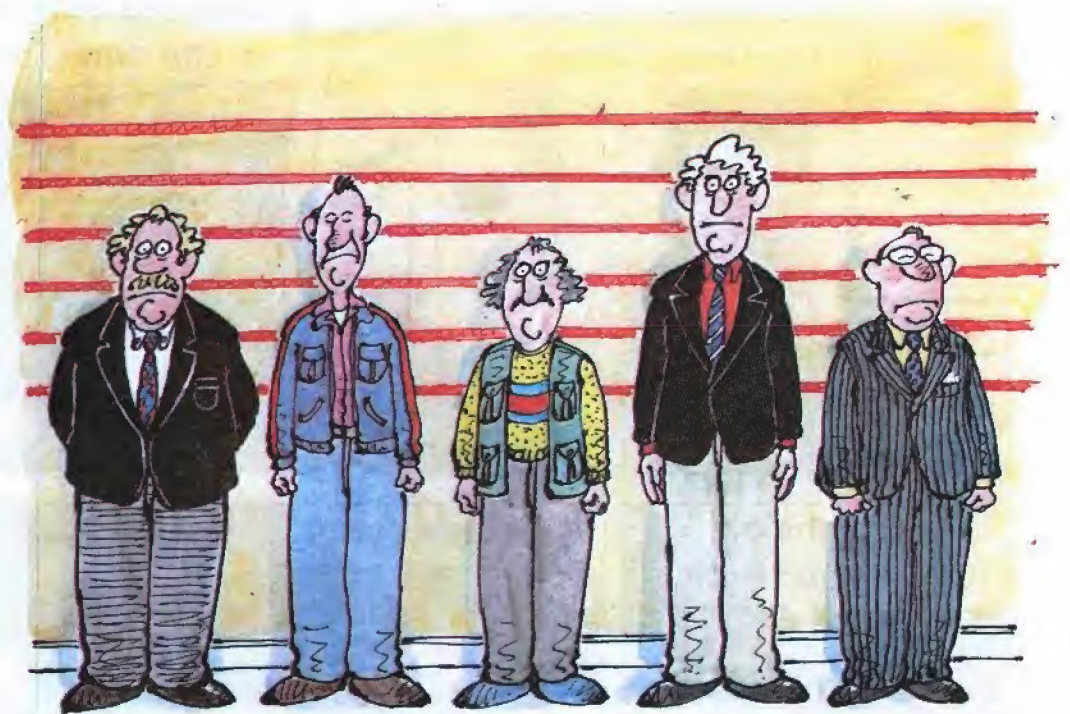

Jim: A man.

Bill: What did he look like?

Jim: He was tall. His hair was white.

Bill: What was he wearing?

Jim: Let's see. He was wearing a black ... Wait a minute!
I'll phone the police. What's that number? 515674.

Who was driving the car?

Hassan helps.

That was Dad.
He'll be home at seven.

Can you do some shopping, Hassan?
Here's the list.

Don't forget the fish.
It's for Dad's dinner.

Can you tell me the way
to the bank, please?

Go straight on.
It's on your right.

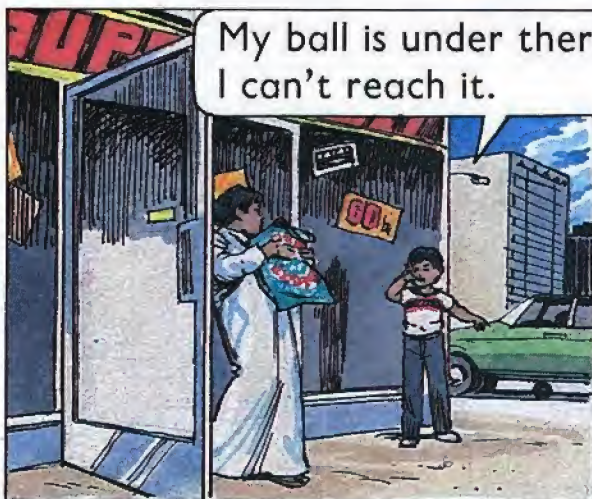

Can I help you?

You are very kind.

Saleh and the old man

The white falcon

'Rashid!' said the teacher. 'Look at this! It's terrible!' Rashid looked at his Workbook. Lots of things were wrong. After school he ran home.

'Why are you sad, Rashid?' his mother asked. 'Tell me.'

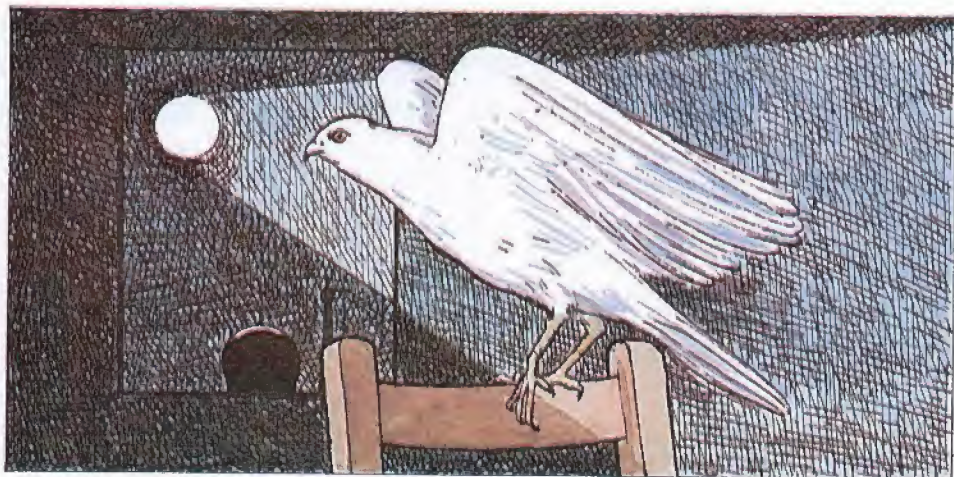

'Oh, it's nothing,' said Rashid.

At seven o'clock Rashid's father came home. 'Rashid! Where were you yesterday?' he asked.

'At the beach. Why?' said Rashid.

'You don't help your mother. You're lazy, Rashid. Lazy!'

'I'm sorry, Father,' said Rashid. He went to his room and went to bed. He was sad.

In the night he heard something. 'Hello!' he said. 'Who's there?' Then he saw it. On his chair there was a beautiful falcon – white and shining like the moon.

go fishing

It's raining.

We went camping last week. On Friday morning it was very hot. The sun was shining and we wanted to go swimming. Suddenly it started to rain.

Dave: Oh, no! It's raining.

Peter: Never mind. We'll go swimming tomorrow.

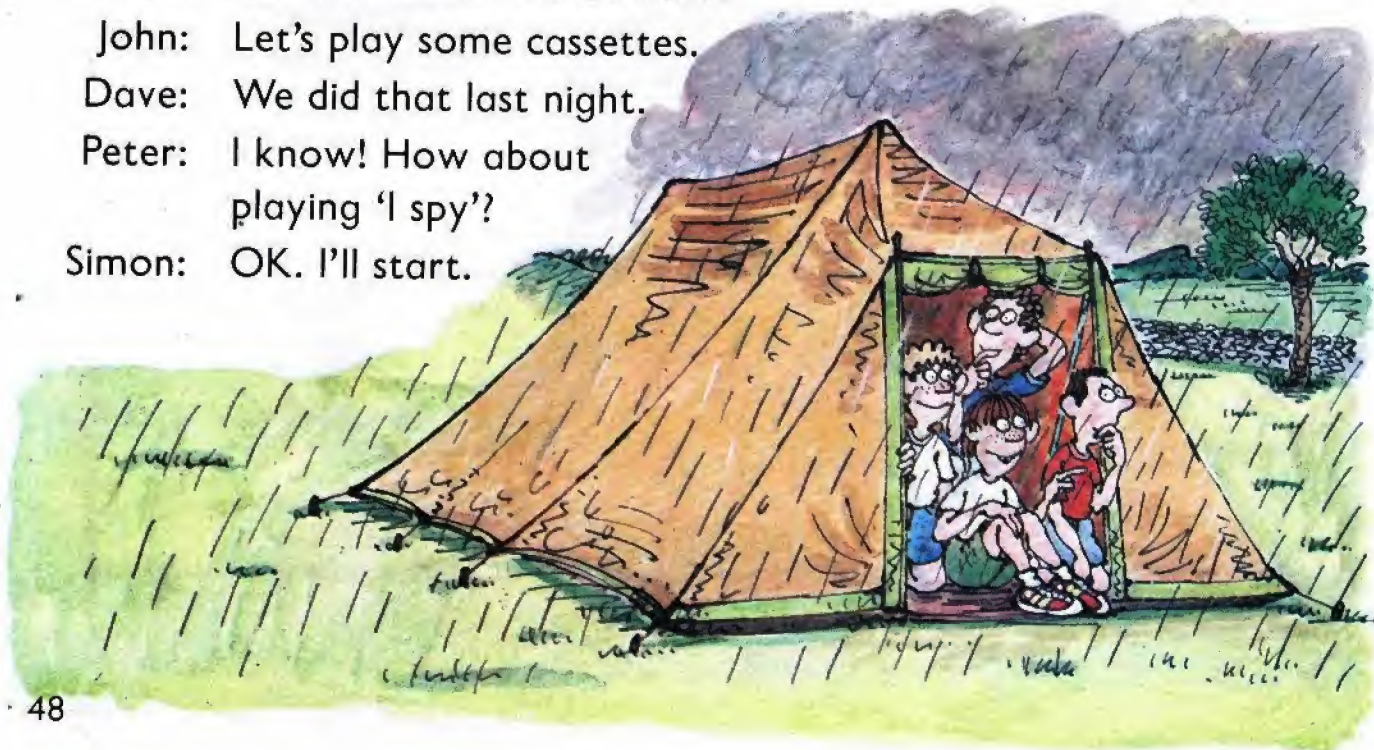

Simon: But what shall we do now?

John: Let's play some cassettes.

Dave: We did that last night.

Peter: I know! How about playing 'I spy'?

Simon: OK. I'll start.

My diary

Saturday 4th July

Today was a bad day. We went swimming in the river and when we were in the water, a goat ate Dave's shirt.

We shouted and it ran away.

We walked back to the camp. The goat was in the tent. It was eating Peter's photographs. Peter shouted. The goat ran out of the tent.

It hit John and knocked him down. Then it stopped and looked at me.

I looked at it. Suddenly it ran at me. I threw a shoe at it. Now I have got only one shoe.

Who wrote this?

Ahmed's story

On Friday evening I went to the desert with my family. We left at five o'clock. After an hour Father stopped the car. 'This is a nice place,' he said.

The moon was shining and there were lots of stars in the sky. Father and I made a fire. Mother started to cook. Amal helped her. Soon we were sitting near the fire, eating meat and potatoes.

We were talking and laughing. Suddenly Father jumped up. 'Look!' he shouted. 'There!' There was a ball of fire in the sky.

'What is it?' asked Mother.

'I don't know,' said Father.

'I've got no idea,' I said.

The ball of fire went into the sea about twenty kilometres away.

In the car going home Amal went to sleep. Mother, Father and I talked and talked.

Hassan's story

'What shall we do tomorrow?' I asked my father last Thursday evening.

'We'll take the boat and we'll go to the island,' he said.

We left at nine o'clock the next morning. We got to the island at eleven o'clock. First we put up the tent. Then my father and I went fishing. We caught four fish. In the evening we made a fire on the beach.

We were cooking the fish. Suddenly I saw something in the sky. 'Look at that,' I shouted. 'What is it, Dad?'

A ball of fire was moving across the sky.

'I don't know,' he said. We watched it. It came down, down, and went into the sea about six kilometres away.

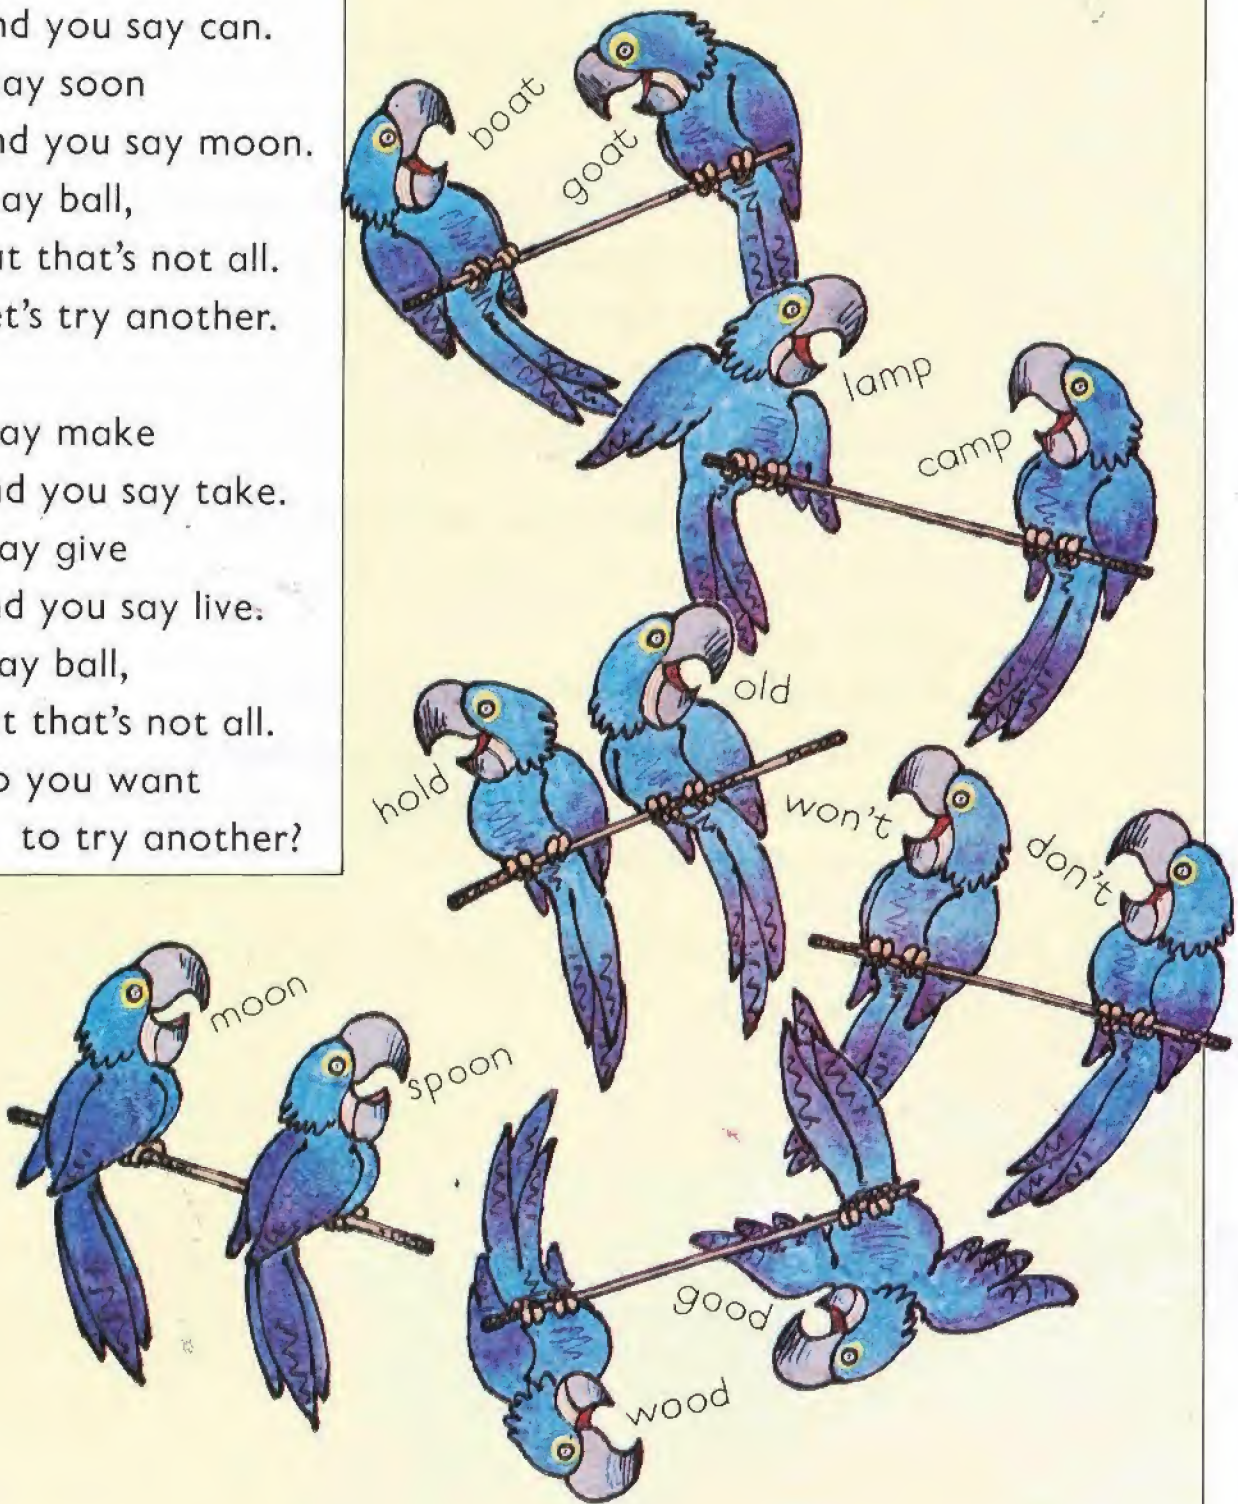

I looked at the stars on the way home. They were beautiful.

I say, you say

I say man
and you say can.
I say soon
and you say moon.
I say ball,
but that's not all.
Let's try another.

I say make and you say take.
I say give
and you say live.
I say ball,
but that's not all.
Do you want to try another?

Whose is it?

Amna, Nadia, Yasmin and Mariam went to the market. They bought some vegetables. Whose is the cucumber?

Uncle Ali's farm

Uncle Ali! Is this yours?

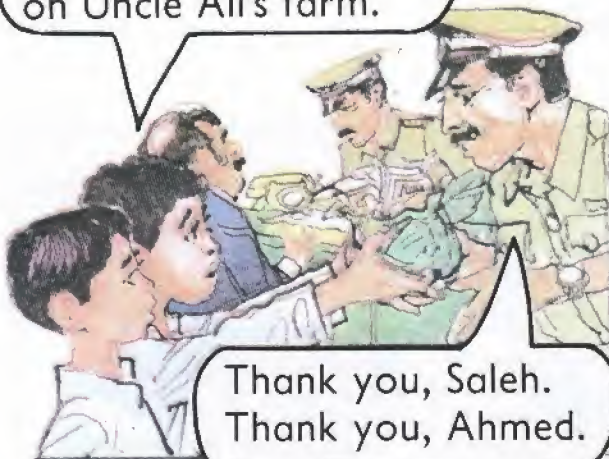

What shall we do with it?

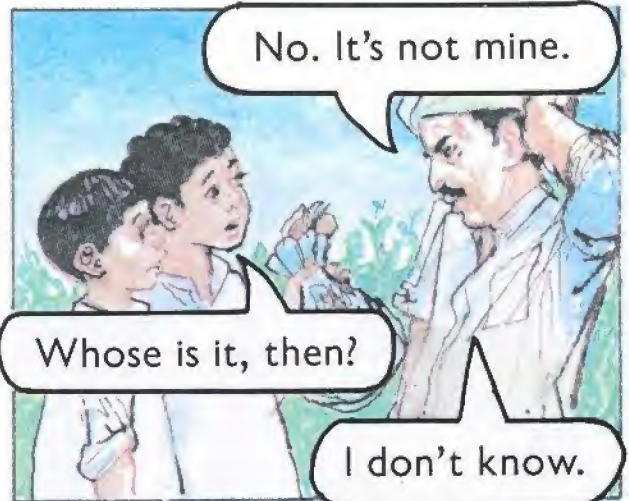

We can't keep it.

We found this money on Uncle Ali's farm.

Thank you, Saleh.
Thank you, Ahmed.

No. It's not mine.

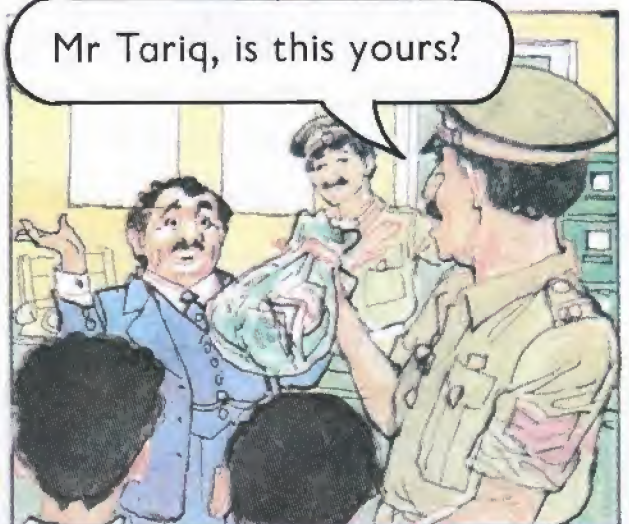

Whose is it, then?

I don't know.

We'll take it to the police station.

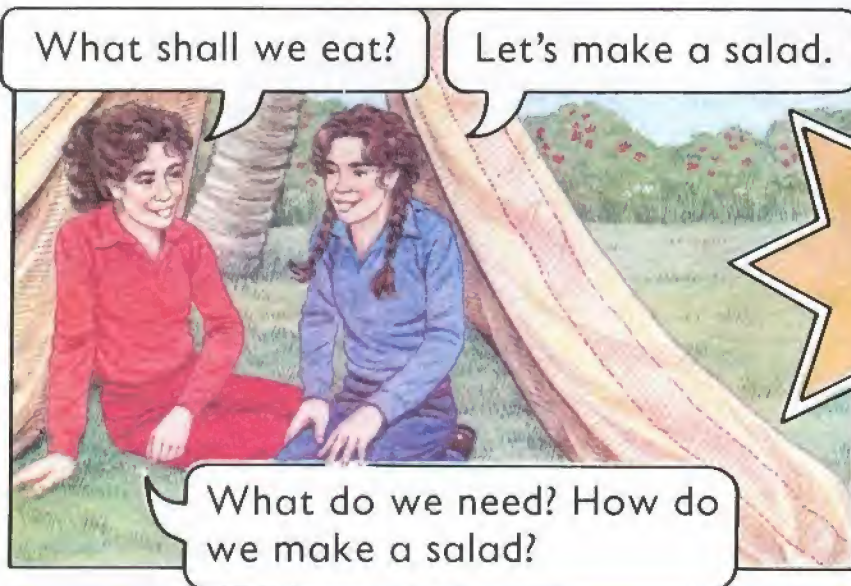

Mr Tariq, is this yours?

The white falcon

‘Dad! Dad! Wake up!’ I said.

‘There’s a white falcon on my chair.’

‘A white falcon?’ said my father. ‘You’re dreaming.’

We went into my room.

‘Look!’ I shouted.

‘Rashid. Sh! You’ll frighten it.’ My father went towards the falcon and held it in his hands. ‘It’s hungry. Get some meat.’

The falcon pulled the meat from my hand. It was very hungry.

‘Be careful! It’ll bite you.’

‘Look, Dad,’ I said. ‘The left leg. It’s broken.’ The falcon was standing on one leg.

‘Wait here,’ said my father.

He got some string and tied a small piece of wood on the falcon’s leg.

I fed the falcon every day. After two weeks we were friends. I was very happy, but I was also sad. ‘The falcon’s beautiful, Dad,’ I said. ‘But it’s not mine.’

‘I know,’ said my father. ‘I know. But where does it come from? We’ll find out tomorrow.’

They're in their cages in the zoo, but we have to find out where.

Fatma

Last Thursday I went to visit Yasmin and Mariam. Yasmin was reading a book and Mariam was painting a picture.

What? 'Do you like it?' Mariam asked.
'It's beautiful,' I said. 'But why are you painting a fox?'

Who? 'It's for school,' she said. 'We both have to _____ Who?
paint a picture of our favourite animal.'

What? 'Where's yours,' Yasmin? I asked.

What? 'I did mine yesterday,' said Yasmin. 'I painted a mouse. The smallest animal in the zoo.'

Who painted this?

Yasmin and Mariam

Whose pictures were the best?

On Saturday morning we all took our pictures to school. In the classroom everybody was talking about them.

‘Yours is great, Nadia,’ I said.

‘Thanks, Yasmin,’ said Nadia. ‘Can I see yours?’

‘Quiet, girls,’ said Mrs Moosa. ‘Quiet, please. Thank you.’

We all sat down and held up our pictures. Mrs Moosa walked round the class very slowly. She looked at every one. Then she looked at mine again. Then she looked at Mariam’s again.

Mrs Moosa went to the front of the class. ‘Well done, girls,’ she said. ‘All the pictures are very good, but Yasmin’s and Mariam’s are the best. We’ll put theirs on the wall.’

‘Come on, Yasmin,’ said Mariam. ‘Let’s tell Fatma.’

Hassan Ali – zoo-keeper

I'm Hassan Ali. I work at the zoo. I'm a keeper. I take care of the lions and the monkeys. In the morning I clean their cages and put water in their bowls. In the afternoon I get their food ready.

The lions eat two or three times a week. They eat meat. I get it from a nearby farm. Monkeys eat fruit and vegetables. Their favourite food is bananas. I get them from the market.

That's Simba. He wants to play. He's not dangerous.

I have to go now. I have to feed the monkeys.

The white falcon

We were having breakfast. I was feeding the white falcon – my white falcon.

‘Rashid,’ said my father. ‘You can’t keep it. You know that.’

‘Yes, Dad,’ I said. ‘But whose is it?’

My father looked at me. ‘We’ll find out in town.’

We asked everybody in the market. ‘We have a white falcon at home. Is it yours? Whose is it? Do you know?’

‘No,’ everybody said.

Then we asked Yousif, an old farmer from the mountains. ‘Yes, I know,’ he said. ‘It’s Sheikh Abdullah’s. He lives near me.’

‘How far is it to your home?’ asked my father.

‘Not far,’ said a man behind me.

I turned round. He was tall and had a kind face. He was laughing.

‘I’m Sheikh Abdullah,’ he said. ‘Do you want to see me?’

I told him about the white falcon.

‘I had a white falcon,’ said Sheikh Abdullah.

‘But it flew away. It was my favourite.’

‘So it’s yours,’ I said sadly.

‘It isn’t mine now,’ said the Sheikh.

‘Why not?’ I asked.

‘The falcon came to you,’ he said. ‘And you helped it. You fed it and took care of it. Now it’s yours.’

Hassan Ibrahim – my day

Hassan Ibrahim drives a taxi in Dubai.

What's my job?

1 Sometimes I work inside and sometimes I work outside. I make people's homes very nice. I need brushes to do my job. Sometimes I have to climb a ladder. First I clean everything. Then I put the colour on. I wear old clothes when I am working.

2 I work in a plane. I fly to lots of places. I take care of the passengers. First I take them to their seats. Then I give them something to eat and something to drink. I have to wear a uniform at work.

3 I work outside. I get up early in the morning. I go down to the beach and get into my boat. Then I go out to sea and start my work. When I have got what I want, I come back. I go to the market and sell the food I have got.

4 I work outside and I make things. You can buy some of the things I make in a shop, but sometimes people want something different. Maybe they want a big table or a nice wooden door. They tell me what they want and I make it.
